FAQs:

1   What are virtual CIO/CTO and IT Strategic Consulting services?

Dataprise offers assessment, analysis, and planning services at the strategic layer within the organization. Virtual CIOs and CTOs deliver these services to augment any skill or experience gaps in your business.

2   What is Dataprise's approach to Strategic Consulting Services?

Dataprise utilizes industry standard frameworks and best practices (e.g., ITIL, Cobit, TOGAF, PMBOK) to deliver services that meet organizational needs. The depth of these services is tailored to your specific business requirements to ensure delivery is effective and efficient.

3   What can I expect from a Strategic Consulting service?

We work with your organization to understand your business goals, identify key issues, and establish future direction. We then conduct assessments and provide an analysis of strategy and planning options to best achieve your objectives.

4   How are Strategic Consulting services delivered?

Our strategic consulting services deliver consistent alignment of IT services and business objectives either through discrete point solution engagements or in an ongoing capacity. These services often evolve from single projects to ongoing service once the benefits are seen from the initial engagement.
